We are looking for 4 enthusiastic festival assistants to work with our Trikki Trakki Festival directors!

About Trikki Trakki

In 2019, Trikki Trakki won the National Arts Award for Best project for young people. We will again see students get the chance to work with leading theatre directors and practitioners to produce brand new adaptations of popular theatre classics, presented yearly in March. This unique festival for children offers students the opportunity to be exposed to theatre-making. From costume design, makeup and lights to set dressing and props making, these children will get to do it all. The festival is organised in collaboration with the Events Unit, the Office of the Permanent Secretary, Ministry for Education, Sport, Youth, Research and Innovation.

HOURS

We need you for approximately 10 hours throughout the rehearsal period in the mornings and afternoons until the 17 March, and for approximately 30 hours throughout production week between 20 and 26 March, mostly mornings and afternoons, with the exception of the 25 March where you'll be required in the late afternoon/evening.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Kindly note that all applicants must have a VAT number, or be willing to apply for a VAT number immediately, in order to be considered eligible to apply for this position.

STAGE MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

Broadening your knowledge on the subject of stage management at this role's core, so we've included a Stage Management Workshop to further train you in the field, before you start putting your knowledge to practice during the festival.

Duties

- Be available and present for production week (Monday 20th March – Friday 24th March) and production weekend (Saturday 25th March and Sunday 26th March);
- Assist the designated Director to list any changes made to the script, cues and staging during rehearsals throughout production week;
- Assist in sorting, storing and organising props on stage and off stage before, during and after the performances, under the instructions of the Stage Manager;
- Assist the Director and the Stage Manager on logistical matters relating to the stage, set and props for the Production.

Applications

Applications supported by a short letter of interest and a Curriculum Vitae are to reach contact@teatrumalta.org.mt by no later than the 1st of March 2023, noon.

Eligible applicants will be contacted for an interview.
